Republican Election
Officers Needed

(Louisville – May 7, 2012) The Jefferson County Clerk's Office Election Center is still actively recruiting Republican Election workers for the upcoming Primary Election to be held on May 22, 2012. Officers must be willing to fill vacancies throughout the county and serve where need.

The Election requires more than 2,000 registered Republican and Democratic citizens of Jefferson County to work the polls at over 571 precincts. Election officers receive $25 for attending a poll worker training session and $125 for working the polls on Election Day. To be considered for an Election officer position, registered Republicans who live in Jefferson County should contact Jeanna Benoy (502) 574-6211 at the Election Center or The Jefferson County Republican Party at (502) 584.7111.

Election Officer applications may be found online at the Jefferson County website at www.JeffersonCountyClerk.org. Once an applicant is approved the last training session will be held Saturday, May 12th.

To be eligible for an election officer position, citizens are required to:

- Be registered to vote in Jefferson County
- Have no changes in party affiliation within the last year.
- Attend a 2½ hour, paid training session – To be held between March and May.
- Work a full-day, 5:15 a.m.-7 p.m., on Election Day
- Must provide own transportation
- Work in the polling location assigned by the Board of Elections

(Every effort is made to place workers in a voting precinct near their home.)

NOTE: Pursuant to KRS 117.045(9), "An election officer shall not be a candidate or the spouse, parent, brother, sister or child of a candidate who is to be voted for at the election."
