Political Party Affiliation Change Deadline Nears

(Louisville, KY – December 1, 2011) The last day to change political party affiliation and to be eligible to vote in that political party affiliation upcoming 2012 Primary Election is December 31, 2011. Kentucky law requires voters to turn in political party changes by December 31 of the previous year.

The Jefferson County Clerk's Offices and Motor Vehicle Service Center branches will be closed on Friday, December 30th for scheduled (AVIS) Automobile Vehicle Information System Outages. The Election Center located at 810 Barret Avenue; Room 103 will be open on December 31st for the convenience of Jefferson County residents from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Any voter registration cards that are mailed must be postmarked by December 31, 2011 to be accepted.

The law does not stop anyone from changing their party from January 1 to the date of the Primary Election. There is just a limitation that if they do, they are only allowed a nonpartisan ballot. They can change their party any time during the year if they so choose.
